NATIONAL TRANSPORTATION SAFETY BOARD

CONTACTS AND INFORMATION SOURCES

Much of our information is available online - please see the directory of Data & Information Products on the Web site.

Please review all sources of information to find the best contact for your topic. Information may be obtained from the NTSB Web site, specific NTSB offices, or other government and contract sources. You may contact us directly by...

- Letter: All comments and suggestions should be directed in writing to the attention of the appropriate office at the indicated address.
- Phone: Telephone numbers are listed for each major office.
- Email: Requests for publications or other information products, FOIA requests, and comments about the Web site may be submitted online. Occasionally, a unique email account is established for special events - these accounts are often temporary; where available, they will be indicated on the Web pages for those activities. In view of the limited resources now available to the Safety Board, and the need to focus those resources on accident investigation and prevention, the Board cannot respond to unsolicited email. We invite you, however, to write us about your concerns. Our various headquarters offices may be contacted at the address below:

NTSB Headquarters

490 L'Enfant Plaza, SW
Washington, DC 20594

PUBLIC INQUIRIES BRANCH

490 L'Enfant Plaza SW
Washington, DC 20594
(800) 877-6799 or (202) 314-6551

Public docket material such as preliminary and final accident reports; aviation accident database research; safety recommendations retrievals; general assistance locating products or information. At this time, only a few selected docket items are available online as exhibits for public hearings or Board meetings.

Access to all documents and information in the NTSB's public files is available in the Public Reference Room. The reference room is located in Washington, DC; hours are 8:45am-4:45pm. Documents and information may be in the form of microfiche, electronic image or hard copy. A self-service duplicator is located in the reference room for your convenience at a nominal cost. If you are reviewing a lengthy list of documents, you may call ahead to make arrangements to have the information ready for review upon your visit to the Safety Board.

You may also request accident information to be sent to you, subject to certain fees. You must cite the date, location, and type of occurrence for an accident in your request; when corresponding by mail or email, be sure to include your name, address, telephone number and affiliation.

Costs for NTSB services, including publications, reproduction costs, and searches may be waived for qualifying foreign countries, international organizations, nonprofit public safety entities, Federal, State, and local government transportation agencies, colleges and universities and news media. In addition, such fees may be waived or reduced for other recipients not in any of the foregoing categories when determined by the Records Management Officer to be in the interest of and contributing to the NTSB program. Information searches generally involve a fee when they require more than one hour for a record search; no search fee will be charged for any request involving a record search of one hour or less.

If you are requesting docket information and are not qualified for fee-exemption, your request will be referred to a fulfillment contractor. For faster service, you may make your request directly with the contractor, General Microfilm, Inc.

An online request form is also available on the NTSB Web site.

NTSB BOARD MEMBERS

MARION C. BLAKEY, CHAIRMAN

Marion Clifton Blakey was sworn in September 26, 2001 as the 9th Chairman of the National Transportation Safety Board.

Ms. Blakey has previously served in five government departments and agencies, including the Department of Commerce, the Department of Education, the National Endowment for the Humanities and the White House, as well as the Department of Transportation; she has held four other Presidential appointments. From 1992 to 1993 she was Administrator of the Department of Transportation's National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

For the last eight years, Ms. Blakey has been the principal of Blakey & Associates, a Washington, D.C. public affairs consulting firm particularly focusing on transportation issues and traffic safety.

Ms. Blakey received her bachelor's degree with honors in international studies from Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia. She also attended Johns Hopkins University, School of Advanced International Studies for graduate work in Middle East Affairs.

CAROL J. CARMODY, VICE CHAIRMAN

Carol J. Carmody was sworn in on June 5, 2000, as the 30th member of the National Transportation Safety Board, and appointed Vice Chairman by President Clinton on January 19, 2001. She served as Acting Chairman from January 22 through September 23, 2001.

Ms. Carmody brings to the job more than 20 years experience with the aviation community. Before coming to the NTSB, Ms. Carmody worked as an independent consultant focusing on international and environmental issues. She served as the U.S. Representative to the Council of the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) in Montreal from 1994 to 1999.

Ms. Carmody spent from 1988 to 1994 as a professional aviation staff member of the Senate Commerce Committee. From 1977 to 1988, she worked at the Federal Aviation Administration, where she was appointed as Deputy Director of Congressional Services in the Office of the Administrator in 1985.

Ms. Carmody has a Master's in Public Administration from American University in Washington, D.C. and a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Oklahoma.

JOHN A. HAMMERSCHMIDT, MEMBER

John A. Hammerschmidt has served for over 16 years at the National Transportation Safety Board. He has served as a Member of the Board since June 1991 and, prior to that, served as Special Assistant to the Board Chairman and Member 1985 to 1991. He has been appointed by the President and confirmed by the U. S. Senate three times.

Mr. Hammerschmidt is a private pilot, and is the senior Safety Board Member. Prior to 1985, Mr. Hammerschmidt served in the Office of the Vice President of the United States (1984), and from 1974 to 1983 he was the Chief Executive Officer of the Hammerschmidt Lumber Company, Inc., Harrison, Arkansas. Mr. Hammerschmidt was president of the Boone County (Arkansas) Industrial Development Corporation.

In 1971, Mr. Hammerschmidt graduated from Dartmouth College "with highest distinction" in his major and was named a Rufus Choate Scholar. He later attended Vanderbilt Law School and Harvard Business School. He also studied at the Catholic University of Ecuador in Quito as part of Georgetown University's foreign study program.

JOHN J. GOGLIA, MEMBER

John J. Goglia has served as a Member of the National Transportation Safety Board since August 1995. With more than 30 years experience in the aviation industry, he is the first Board Member to hold an FAA aircraft mechanic's certificate.

Prior to becoming a Board Member, Mr. Goglia held numerous positions in the airline industry and was involved for more than 20 years as a union flight safety representative on accident investigation teams. For twelve years, he operated his own aircraft service company. Mr. Goglia served as the Governor's appointee to the Boston Area Second Airport Site Selection Board and the Massachusetts Workers Compensation Review Commission.

Long a champion of aviation education, Mr. Goglia served as Chair and a founding member of the National Coalition for Aviation Education, an aviation industry organization that advances education among America's youth and aviation workforce. He was an original member of the Steering Committee to establish the International Society of Aviation Maintenance Professionals, a society dedicated to advancing safety and professionalism throughout the aviation maintenance industry.

GEORGE W. BLACK, JR.

George W. Black, Jr., P.E., of Georgia became a Member of the National Transportation Safety Board on February 22, 1996, and is the first practicing highway engineer to be a Board Member.

Mr. Black was an Air Force ROTC graduate and served as an Aircraft Maintenance Officer while stationed in Texas and southeast Asia. He later became the first traffic engineer for Gwinnett County, Georgia, where he served for 24 years and retired as Director of Transportation in 1996.

He is a 1968 graduate of the Georgia Institute of Technology, with a Bachelor of Civil Engineering degree, and is a registered professional engineer. While at Georgia Tech, Mr. Black worked in one of the original Multi-Disciplinary Traffic Crash Investigation Teams funded by the U.S. Department of Transportation.
